

VOICES FROM WITHIN - A HELTA MEMBERS' DAY

Professional development workshops delivered by HELTA Members with the kind support from Oxford University Press

2 September 2017, Saturday 1000 – 1730
Berufliche Schule City Nord, Telemannstraße 10, 20255 Hamburg
(google map: goo.gl/Xzmvxi)

Fee: 10 EUR for non-members (refundable upon joining HELTA)

Catering kindly provided by HELTA Members

Registration: chair@helta.de

by 25 August

(attendance/Fortbildung certificates provided on request)

Programme:

- 10.00: Pronunciation is a two way street (Plenary by OUP) – Dr. Catherine Walter
- 11.10: The character of the English language – Dr. Kimberly Crow
- 11.40: BEC? CIOL? PET? CAE? CPE? FCE? EFB? SEFIC? IELTS? TOEFL? TOEIC? FSK? – Sandra Stapela
- 12.05: Lunch
- 12.35: Bicycles or boiling water – changing how learners see grammar (OUP) – Dr. Catherine Walter
- 13.30: Writing for Technical Purposes – Nick Jones
- 14.00: Lesson in Contract English - Coming into Force Clause – Jim Faulkner
- 14.30: (Pecha Kucha)
 - Elf Termination – wherever next? (Pecha Kucha) – Andreas Grundtvig
 - Some Considerations when beginning an EFL career, and a refresher for the 'Alte Hasen' - Lawrence Harris
- 15.10: The Language of Business - Helen Waldron
- 15.50: Staying on top: How to Keep Track of Lessons, Ideas and Resources - Sarah Plochl
- 16.20: Bring A Game - Bring Your A Game - Vincent Wongaiham
- 16.50: An ELT Quiz with Jim Maloney

See www.helta.de for full programme and descriptions